

BALTIMORE COUNTY COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

“WOMAN OF THE YEAR” AWARDS 2023 CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

Each year, the Baltimore County Commission for Women accepts nominations for its annual “Woman of the Year” and “Young Woman of the Year” awards. This will be our forty-first year honoring women for their outstanding contributions to the community.

Criteria: These awards honor female residents of Baltimore County who have made significant, unique, and lasting contributions within their community, workplace or school. Nominees should be role models of inspiration and achievement for other women; and must have worked to enhance the lives of fellow county citizens.

Nominees for “Young Woman of the Year” must be a Baltimore County High School Senior who has leadership qualities and has made an extraordinary impact through volunteering in her community and school.

In addition, one nominee who has made a powerful impact on the community by her volunteering efforts will be chosen as “Woman Making a Difference.”

Nominees must currently reside in Baltimore County for a minimum of three years. Previous winners and elected officials are not eligible to be nominated.

Submitting Nominations: Please complete the nomination form describing the nominee’s qualifications. You must also include such items as résumés, curriculum vitae, letters of commendation, newspaper articles, lists of activities, etc. Nomination packets are to be no longer than eight pages, including the nomination form, at the time of submission.

Complete nominations must be submitted or postmarked by 4 p.m. on Monday, May 1, 2023. Electronic submissions are encouraged, electronic forms are available at www.baltimorecountymd.gov/nominate
